CPCA Member Benefits

- Voice for the Profession — CPCA communicates your views and interests to allied professions, federal and state agencies, legislators at the state and national level, and the community at large.
- Fellowship — You will be able to network with other individuals who are interested in promoting professional law enforcement.
- Legislative Watch — We monitor and actively lobby the Connecticut General Assembly on law enforcement issues, so you will know when important legislative bills are pending at the State Capitol.
- Quarterly Meeting — We invite expert speakers on topics of importance to the law enforcement community.
- Association Newsletter — The CPCA Hotline gives our members law enforcement news, legislative updates, committee actions, and training opportunities. It is published four times a year.
- EXPO — Each year in April, CPCA showcases the largest exhibition of police products and services in New England.
- Membership Roster — Listing of all member Chiefs of Police and contact information.
- Municipal Services — The Municipal Police Support Committee evaluates and makes recommendations to municipalities seeking information on police departments. The Police Chief Selection Committee assists municipalities in filling vacancies.
- Scholarships to Police Officers — Each year several scholar- ships are awarded, reflecting your interests in promoting criminal justice higher education.
- Professional Staff — Full-time staff members are available to answer your questions about the Association and law enforce- ment issues.
- Participation on Committees — You can help address issues in law enforcement.
- CPCA Web Site — The CPCA Web site www.cpcanet.org provides you with monthly news updates, event listings, Association information and our Chiefs On-Line Directory. The site also features links to other law enforcement agencies.

CPCA Endorses the Following Law Enforcement Code of Ethics

- As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all to liberty, equality and justice.
- I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or to my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed both in my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.
- I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.
- I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of police service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other police officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.
- I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.
- I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession . . . law enforcement.
